If asked the question "Have you got a stomach?" it would be safe on general principles, to answer "Yes." But if you are sure of it, that is, if you ever feel any distress after eating or any pains of whatever description in the region of the stomach, you have got something more than an ordinary stomach; in other words, you have got a diseased stomach. The stomach is a powerful muscle, and the proper remedy for a tired muscle is rest. Try the Baker Digestive Cord, for this product not only contains digested food, which will soothe the system, without any work on the part of the diseased organ, but also the digestion of other foods as well. You can test its value in your case for the little sum of 10 cents. Sample bottles at this price are carried by all druggists.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

The mountains and by-ways are blighted with snow and ice and heavy rains have set in along the headwaters of the Ohio and in the Kanawha and Allegheny valleys, and the streams are now in condition to rapidly rise and the prospects seem favorable for a freshet. At Parkersburg the rivers are rising very rapidly and both are frozen over. Among the boats that are tied up there are the Hudson, Adele, Nina Padon, Milton and Martin, and it is thought that all will be more or less damaged when the gorges let go. At Calestburg Sandy river is rising. Gascon and Twelve Pole boats broke yesterday morning. Logs are running out, but very few are being caught account of the heavy ice. Rivermen expect a big rise.

LYMAN J. GAGE'S VIEWS.

WHAT MCKINLEY'S SECRETARY OF TREASURY WILL DO.

Greenbacks Should Be Permanently Retired, and Treasury Notes Redeemed—Present System a Make-shift.

New York World.

The World submitted to writing to Mr. Lyman J. Gage a number of questions concerning the most vital issues with which he will deal as Secretary of the Treasury.

Mr. Gage, with great candor and courtesy, makes his position quite clear on all of them as follows:

"Our whole monetary system is the result of makeshift legislation and scientific compromises. It is time that reform began."

"In my opinion the greenbacks should be permanently retired. The silver purchased under the Sherman Act should be gradually sold and the Treasury notes redeemed and canceled. Some well guarded system of bank note circulation, broader and more elastic than the present National Bank Act provides, should be inaugurated."

"Such bank notes should be redeemable at a central place and be redeemable in gold only."

"Silver certificates, which form nearly one-fifth of the circulating medium of the United States, are dangerous. By their use a volume of inferior money has found an abnormal use. They are the most perplexing feature in the much involved problem of our National finances."

"There is no reason why the Government should act as warehouseman for either gold or silver. Such a function is outside its proper limit of action."

"But we are faced by a condition. The enormous amount of $500,000,000 of silver, represented by $388,000,000 in silver certificates, added to the $150,000,000 purchased by the Government under the Sherman Act, constitutes a standing menace to every business interest."

"To sum up, the defects of our present currency system are:

"First—Confusing heterogeneity which needs simplification.

"Second—The greenback controversy the principle of paper money, viz.: That every note injected into the commercial system should represent an existing commercial value."

"Third—The Treasury note is a standing evidence of a foolish operation—the creation of a debt for the purchase on a falling market of a commodity for which the purchaser has no use. It lies open to the just charge of being both idiotic and immoral."

"Fourth—The National bank note nearly conforms to the true principle of paper money, but the unreasonable requirements for security paralyze its efficiency and operate to destroy its elasticity."

"Fifth—The silver certificate encourages the use of silver to a larger extent than is consistent with the safe preservation of that metal on a parity with gold."

"Would a National commission help to promote reform?"

"There is reason to hope that it would be of great service in that direction. Such a commission if rightly elected would throw a flood of light upon these involved questions. The information it might gather would be of immense value to all our people and would guide us to wise legislation.

"Emotion and sentiment are not safe guides in matters of science. A clear apprehension of true principles will lead to correct action."

"Reaction will be slow, but it is coming, and it will be of long duration."

CHURCH-GOERS DON'T PAY TOLL.

Turnpike Owners Had Better Be a Little Careful and Avoid Trouble.

Some of the Turnpike Managers in the back precincts refuse to permit Church-goers to pass their gates without paying toll.

The attention of these gentlemen is called to a new law upon the subject, approved March 17th, 1896, as follows:

"Section 4—The Managers of any turnpike, gravel or plank road shall permit Ministers of the Gospel to travel on the road without paying toll when on ministerial duty, and shall charge no toll against scholars going to or from school, on to persons who are going to or from any place of religious worship, and funeral processions going to or from any place of burial; but if any other person than scholars going to or returning from school, and the driver, shall occupy a vehicle, full toll shall be charged and collected for such vehicle."

Loses Her Beautiful Capital Building by Fire.

Flames Start in Lieut. Gov. Lyon's Room and Spread Rapidly

The efforts of the firemen were futile. Thousands of dollars' worth of records were lost. Fire, thought to be caused by an electric wire.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 8.—Fire was discovered in Lieut. Gov. Lyon's room on the second floor of the main building of the capitol shortly before 1 o'clock Tuesday. The room is directly over the senate chamber and close to the senate elevator.

The senate had taken a recess at 11:30 until 1 o'clock, to await the reception from the house of the amended Mitchell treasury resolution, and it was just as President Hoover was preparing to take the chair that a page boy gave him the information that fire had been started in the capitol building. It was thought at first to be of a trivial nature, and Chief Clerk Sully directed a bucket brigade to go into service.

Meanwhile an alarm was sent in from the senate library. The efforts of the men with buckets were futile, they returned with the information that the flames were beyond their control.

The senate was well filled when the news was received and it spread rapidly among the senators and spectators that the fire was of a most serious nature. There was a great commotion and haste, and under the chief clerk's direction, the senate records were hurriedly taken to safety.

With the arrival of the fire department came thousands of spectators, and the capitol park in the vicinity of the burning building was soon filled with struggling humanity. Before the firemen could direct a stream on the main building, the flames had spread to the senate chamber, and the fact that the structure was doomed.

In the house the first intimation concerning the fire came from the smoke in the upper corridors. The word was quickly passed around, and the members left their seats and their much excitement prevailed. Rapidly the members left their seats and their much excitement prevailed. Rapidly the members left their seats and their much excitement prevailed.

The remainder of the day was taken up by the House in the consideration of the bill. The House did not finish its speech when, at 5:30, the session adjourned until Wednesday.

House—Nearly all of Tuesday was spent by the house in listening to a discussion now known as the "Columbia" committee in the district of Columbia, which found its expression in a compromise with the consideration of the bill making appropriations for the expenses of the district for the year ending June 30. The bill provides the unincorporated business on the calendar. The House passed the bill by a vote of 219 to 197.

MARYLAND

Wants a Representative in the President-Elect's Cabinet.

The Friends of James A. Gary, of Baltimore, Are Active.

Judge Lewis McCommas, of Hagerstown, also mentioned as Maj. Wm. Warner, of the City, Md., suggested for a position—Other Candidates.

CANTON, O., Feb. 8.—Two Maryland House members appointments met here Tuesday and Senator Wellington of that state, who did not come near Canton, Ohio, in the morning, but with having quietly assisted in causing one of them to drop quietly from public view. The withdrawal of Judge Joff from the cabinet possibilities, caused the friends of James A. Gary of Baltimore to think that there was an opportunity for a Maryland representative in the cabinet and as he is endorsed by influential politicians in all but two of the southern states, a strong showing was and has again been made in his behalf.

Judge Lewis McCommas, a former member of congress from Hagerstown, now a judge in the district of Columbia, was suggested by many of his friends as an excellent man for appointment to the cabinet. It is understood that the republican organization in the state, which is controlled by Senator Wellington, is not friendly to him.

Missouri delegation which came to Canton Tuesday afternoon to ask Maj. McKelney to appoint Maj. Warner, of Kansas City, to the cabinet made a strong argument in his behalf. It was the third delegation which has visited Canton to suggest the appointment of Maj. Warner. It was argued that his selection for the cabinet would harmonize the party, close the old Filley Kereau feud and bring the state into the only republican majority group in the country. It is the general belief here that Maj. McKelney may decide at the last moment to complete his cabinet by naming a member from the south in it. The Missouri visitors presented endorsements of Maj. Warner from the legislatures of Indiana, Texas, Kansas and their own state.

Among Maj. McKelney's callers were C. W. DeLoach of Baltimore, secretary of the state bureau of immigration and a possible candidate for the position of commissioner of immigration; Stanley, of Bowling Green, O., candidate for position of captain of the watch in the treasury department; and Wm. Warner, of Kansas, who wants to be consul at Nuremberg; J. O. Gibbs, of Norfolk, O., candidate for public printer; Arthur H. Meyer, of Illinois, and Senator Wm. E. Mason, of Illinois, who asked Maj. McKelney to appoint him. C. Payne, of Wisconsin, suggested general.

Judge Joseph McKenna, of San Francisco, has accepted the portfolio of secretary of interior in the new cabinet. This information was given Tuesday by the president-elect to a delegation of Missourians who called on him to urge his appointment of Judge William Warner, of that state.

An ordinance fixing the license for circuses and like exhibitions at $10 per week, where the same continues in the city for one or more months, was passed by the Lexington City Council under a suspension of the rules. This ordinance was designed to enable the "Winter Circus" to remain in the city, the license now being $5 per day.

I have given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a fair test and consider it one of the very best remedies for cough that have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it freely. Any cold my children contract yields very readily to this medicine. I can conscientiously recommend it for cough and colds in children. GEORGE E. WOZNY, Clerk Circuit Court, Ferdinand, Ind. SENSIBLE SUGGESTION.

President-Elect McKinley Strikes the Keynote of Sound Sense.

THE LEXINGTON agrees with The Portsmouth Tribune which says here is something from President McKinley that will meet the approval. We feel sure, of the popular heart. It reflects the heart of the man who is to rule over the destiny of the Republic for the next four years. It is the same man who, a few years ago, went on the notes of a friend to promote a manufacturing industry giving employment to the unemployed—work for the workers—and in a few months found himself bankrupt. Read this and you will feel kinder toward the world, no matter what you have previously thought of McKinley.

CANTON, O., January 31st.
 Inaugural Committee, Washington, D. C.—Gentlemen: It has come to my knowledge that you propose to expend something like $50,000 for what is known as the Inaugural Ball, to be held on the evening following my inauguration. While I appreciate fully the spirit that has prompted you to project a ceremonial of such magnitude, allow me to say, with the sincere hope that I will not be misunderstood, that it is unbearable for me to think of such a vast amount of money being devoted to no more substantial purpose than to display and pleasure when there are millions of our brethren throughout the world actually starving, dying from the lack of food, clothing, shelter and medical attention. I beg of you, then, if your desire is to arrange an observance of inauguration day that will be well pleasing to me and give impressiveness to the event, that you abandon your pretentious plans for the ball and, with the approval of the citizens who have subscribed the money, devote $25,000 to the organized alleviation of wretchedness in the great cities of the United States, $10,000 to provide food and shelter for the persecuted Armenians of Turkey, and $15,000 to relieve the horrors of plague and famine in India. Hoping that you will share my views of the manner in which the funds can be applied with the most gratifying results to our people and with the greatest credit to our inquiries as a Christian Nation, I seriously and earnestly solicit your participation in this act of sacrifice and self-forgetfulness. I am, gentlemen, yours very cordially. WILLIAM McKINLEY.

Very likely not. It's a new bread, baked in a new way—in a QUAKER PAN. Every virtue and goodness of the best old way bread—and something more. Never a raw streak, never an overdone spot. The baking is uniform. When the loaf is done anywhere it is done everywhere.
